New Mexico PBS Long Term Recruitment Initiatives

June 1, 2015 - May 31, 2016

| No. | Description of Initiative | Scope of Employment Unit's Participation |
|-----|--|---|
| 1 | Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. The establishment of an internship program was developed by New Mexico PBS by recruiting local area college students as part-time employees. As student employees, they acquire skills in broadcasting by receiving specific training in various station operations. In many instances following graduation, students that have remained as employees during their academic years become either a mainstay of New Mexico PBS or plan on moving to other broadcasting organizations. | New Mexico PBS exposes students to the broadcasting environment and provides real-life on-the-job training to potential students in their field. New Mexico PBS has 17 students from June 1, 2015 through May 31, 2016. |
| 2 | Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions. According to UNM University Business Policies and Procedures Manual on Career Development (Policy #3260.3), station personnel are encouraged to participate in some form of career development which consist of continuous occupational and/or professional education and training to maintain expertise, and/or participate in the career ladder program to provide for planned progression within the same position. | New Mexico PBS personnel are capable of advancing in their careers. Personnel within different departments at New Mexico PBS attend classes at UNM and CNM. Also key personnel attend seminars and workshops to enhance their current positions. |
| 3 | Sponsorship of at least two events in the community designed to inform and educate members of the Public as to employment opportunities in broadcasting. Mentoring programs are done through the Albuquerque Public School system conducted each year. New Mexico PBS provides positions for up to four high school students to work and train in television. During summer seasons, interested students from local area high schools are recruited and given the opportunity of acquiring skills in television broadcasting. | New Mexico PBS provides real-life on-the-job training to high school students.
